

Ethical Issues in Agriculture: Genetically Modified Crops and the Organic Movement

A workshop with Paul Thompson

Prof Paul Thompson holds appointments at the University of Toronto as Professor in the Institute for the History and Philosophy of Science and Technology, the Department of Ecology and Evolutionary Biology, and the Department of Philosophy.

There will be responses from: Michel Morange (IHPST), Jean Gayon (IHPST), Michael Winter (University of Exeter Centre for Rural Policy Research) and Berris Charnley (Egenis), then a roundtable discussion.
Chair: John Dupré (Egenis)

This event is free. Please direct inquiries to Dr Berris Charnley
b.charnley@exeter.ac.uk

Friday 10 February 2012 2:30 - 5:30pm
Streatham: Amory C501, with video link to Tremough: Peter Lanyon Seminar 10